Externs, who come daily to be dress'd. Dr. Wm Stephens, and Dr. John Anderson, Physicians, visit in their Turns on Mondays and Fridays. Messrs Hannibal Hall, Wm Dobbs, John Stone, George Dawnt, and Rice Gibbon, Surgeons, visit daily in their Turns, and All serve without Fee or Reward. They publish an Account of their Proceedings yearly. The Trustees have now built a considerable Addition, on Ground given for that Purpose by the Archdeacon of Dublin, which holds 30 Beds, and Conveniency for bathing and sweating.

THE CHARITABLE INFIRMARY on the Imu-kay, the first Institution of that Kind in this City, was schem'd in the Year 1723, and opened in the Year 1728. In this Hospital, great Numbers of maimed, wounded, and diseased Poor, are constantly relieved. There are above 36 Beds, with Provision and all Necessaries for Interns, who are received into the House, and constantly attended; as well as Medicines and Advice gratis for all Externs, who flock in Numbers thither daily. This Charity is altogether supported by the voluntary Contributions of the well-disposed. The Physicians, Dr. Rd Weld and Dr. John Fergus, attend every Tuesday and Friday, from 9 till 11, and the Surgeons daily in their turns. All without Fee or Reward. Of the Incorporated SOCIETY in Dublin, for promoting English Protestant Working Schools in Ireland.

THE principal Views of His Majesty's Charter for erecting these Schools, in the Year 1733, were Two. The First, for training up the Children of the poor Natives in the Protestant Religion; to which End, the Society are careful to provide them with good Masters and Mistresses, who shall teach them to read the Word of God, and instruct them in the true Principles of Christianity: The Second was, for training them up in Labour and Industtry, in order to cure that habitual Idleness and Laziness, which is too common among the Poor of this Country, and which naturally leads them not only into Nastiness, but also Stealing, Lying, and most other Vices. To this End, the Children are employed in cultivating the Lands that are granted to the Schools, either by Donation, or for a certain Rent; but especially in carrying on the Linnen Manufacture in all its Branches. The major part of their Time is devoted to these Labours, in order to render them useful Members of the Commonwealth as they grow up.

The Schools already opened proceed in a flourishing way, many of the Children having manufactured their own Cloathing, several transplanted from one School to others, and several also bound out Apprentices, especially to Branches of the Linnen Manufacture. The Expences of each are this Year very much increased on account of the late Scarcity, which hath greatly lessened the Society's Fund.

Stradbally in the Queen's County is finished, made capable of receiving 120 Children—40 already admitted. This School is of no Expence to the Society, by reason of the great Subscriptions, which Pole Cosby, Esq; has raised in that County.

Newtown Corry in the County of Monaghan, was opened 28 April last, and 20 Children admitted. They have already spun a proper Quantity of Linnen for their own Use.

The Schools of Ray near Raphoe, Co. Donegal, at Armagh, Co. Armagh, at New Ross, Co. Wexford, and at Santry, Co. Dublin, are building, and some of them almost finished.

In the School of Temple's-town, (formerly called Roundwood) Co. Wicklow, and Parish of Daralassera, in the Year ending 29 Sept. 1740, besides what Expence of hired Servants and Day Labourers has been saved by the Industry of the Boys and Girls,—there is Corn of one Plantation Acre sate at home in the Hagyard: The Ground whereon it grew was intirely dug, burn-baited, sowed, and trenched-in by the Boys the Season before.—A Plantation Acre of new Fallow for Rye cultivated as before.—The said Acre of Rye Stubble intirely dug over, and the Stubble turned under the Soil for a Crop of Oats to be sowed next Spring.—These 3 Articles without any Expence.—325 four-barrel Kishes of Turf all sate at home, which cost the Society 3 Shillings only.—102 Yards good Broad-cloth, manufactured by the Boys and Girls, whereof 90 Yards applied to their Cloathing, and 12 Yards in the Store-room, at the Society's Disposal; this stands the Society in little more than prime Cost.—The Girls, besides Yarn spun for 4 Pounds Weight of twisted Thread for making and mending their Cloaths both Linnen and Woollen, have spun within the Year 184 Yards of Linnen; whereof, over and above the Demand of the Children, 138 Yards remain in the Store-room at the Society's Disposal. The Expence of Subsistence of the whole Family, 25 in Number, was 39 l. 1 d. halfp.

The

The Principal FAIRS of IRELAND.

Collected, every One, either from the Information of Gentlemen and Dealers, or from the Returns made by the Surveyors in their several Districts, which the Honourable Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue were pleased to give Me, for the purpose of printing the Fairs with the greater Correctness in this Almanack: Which Original Returns are still in my Custody for Vouchers.

JOHN WATSON.

All the Fairs that happen on any one Day, are for the most part put alphabetically, so as to be found readily: k. c. is King's County; q. c. Queen's County; And in the other Counties, only the 3 or 4 first Letters are set down.

For the greater Ease of my Customers, I first set down the Day of the Month, and then the initial Letters of the Days of the Week, on which the Fairs will happen in 1741. Every one that falls out on Sunday, is of course kept on the following Monday; as is also a considerable Number of those that happen on Saturday.

The Principal ROADS of IRELAND.

Partly Corrected from Mr. SENEX's Map: By Mr. JOHN GIBSON: And partly Set down according to the Information of Gentlemen. Put into a new Method, by JOHN WATSON, Bookseller.

The MEASURED, or STONE-MILES, as far as I have received the Accounts of them, are marked with the Letter [f.] in the first Column of Figures: [f. f.] farther side from Dublin, and [n. f.] nearest side to Dublin.

The first Column of Figures is read thus: From Dublin to Swords 6, from Swords to White Hart 8, from White Hart to Drogheda 9 Miles, &c.

The second Column is read thus: From Dublin to Swords 6, from Dublin to White Hart 14, from Dublin to Drogheda 23 Miles, &c.

I distinguish the Columns at the Tops by the Capital Letters, from A, B, C, and so on, that there may be easy References, to avoid Repetitions.

The Postage of single Letters to Dublin from any Town mark'd thus * is Two Pence; and from every other Town, Four Pence.

The English Packets are due in Dublin on Sundays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays.

The Posts from Dublin go into Cork and Limerick, on Mondays, Thursdays, and Saturdays; and come out of Cork and Limerick, to Dublin, on Sundays, Tuesdays, and Fridays.

Some other NOTED PLACES in IRELAND, with References, in order to find out their POST-TOWNS: Corrected partly at the Post-Office, and partly by Information from the Country.

Thus, if I wanted to send a Letter to Ballihays, I find it not among the Post-Towns; but in this Alphabet, it refers to No. 24. or Cavan: So I must direct, To Ballybays near Cavan.

I have endeavoured this Season to make this Alphabet generally serve for another Purpose also, I mean, That of finding nearly the Distance of any Place in it from Dublin, even whether such Place be, or be not, set down in the foregoing Roads.

Thus, in the Post-Towns, Cavan is 48 Miles from Dublin, (and the Road to Cavan is set down in the Column G of the Roads) therefore Ballyhays is but a few Miles more or less than Cavan, its Post-Town: And so of any other.
